

What Is Dance to You? with Nadia Adame

Hosted by Rianne Svelnis with Naomi Brand

Recorded in February 2021

Our conversation with Nadia touches on the multiplicity of her practice as a dance artist, actor, writer, film maker and mother, her international perspective on integrated dance and company models, and her reflections on virtuosity, storytelling, and collaboration

*Since recording of this interview Nadia Adame has taken on the role as new Artistic Director of Axis Dance

Company axisdance.org/from-the-newsroom/

Axis Dance Company: axisdance.org

Axis Choreo-Lab axisdance.org/choreolab

Judith Smith <https://axisdance.org/about/>

CandoCo dance company candoco.co.uk

Danza Mobile danzamobile.es

El Tinglao El Tinglao

Marc Brew Marc Brew

Colectivo Lisarco colectivolisarco.com/inicio

Bio Nadia Adame

Nadia is a multidisciplinary artist: actress, writer, and award-winning dancer & choreographer. She studied Ballet & Flamenco at the Royal Dance Conservatory of Madrid and holds BA degrees in Theatre and Spanish Language & Literature. She has danced pieces by Stephen Petronio, Bill T. Jones, Arthur Pita, Rafael Bonachela, Sonya Delwaide, Chevi Muraday, and Marc Brew among others and performed at the Kennedy Centre (USA) with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Nadia's acting career includes theatre works in the United States and independent film projects in North America and Europe. Visit her website www.nadiaadame.com